November 2018

Dear High School Work Crew Applicant,

Thanks you for your interest in a work crew position at Covenant Point Bible Camp for the summer of 2019! Our mission at CPBC is to present campers with the claims of Jesus Christ, and encourage them in their next step of faith. Our volunteer work crews provide vital support to that mission by carrying out the grounds and kitchen operations, as well as assisting summer staff with ministry to our campers. If you have a heart for ministry, are hardworking, and have a mature attitude, we invite you to apply to be a part of the work crew this summer.

Work crew is essentially a volunteer position with food and housing provided. Please be sure to check your schedule: work crew members are required to be at camp for the entire session they select. You may apply for any and all sessions if you wish. Acceptance will be on a space-available basis. If you wish to apply, please proceed:

1. Fill out an online application in full including all essay questions.
2. Upon submitting your application, you will receive an auto email from CPBC with instructions on completing your references. Forward the link you receive in the auto email to your two references for completion. References may not be relatives or peers. At least one reference must be from someone who can describe your faith journey.
3. Be prepared for an in-person or telephone interview sometime this winter or spring.

Summer 2019 Sessions:

Session 1 (5 weeks)      June 9 – July 13

Session 2 (4.5 weeks)      July 10 – Aug 10

We look forward to receiving your application. We will begin making assignments as early as January 1, 2019. No application will be considered until it is complete, including references. Individuals may apply and work for multiple sessions during the summer. Thank you for pursuing ministry at Covenant Point!

In Christ,

Summer Mission and Ministry Goals

CAMP MISSION:

To present campers with the claims of Jesus Christ and encourage them in their next step of faith.

GOALS FOR THE CAMPER

1. Present the Gospel

Challenge each camper with a clear presentation of the Gospel, and provide opportunities to explore the meaning of the Gospel with their counselor, camp pastor and peers.

2. Opportunity for Commitment

Provide campers with clear opportunities for decisive responses of life commitment to Christ as well as for growth and discipleship.

3. Faith Laboratory

Provide an environment where campers may increase their knowledge of their faith and be challenged to decide what it means for their immediate behavior and attitudes in every camp activity. Staff and program will encourage and reinforce these new ideas.

4. Community

Provide the camper the powerful learning opportunity to live in a community in which the total staff <sup>model's</sup> dependence upon God, and shows honest dealings with needs, conflicts, reconciliation and mutual commitment of a true covenant community.

5. Spiritual Growth Skills

Provide opportunities for developing skills in the use of scriptural resources, prayer, accountability and worship as resources for daily living.

6. Personal Growth

Provide the opportunity for each camper to grow in personal responsibility and motivation through assuming increasing responsibilities for self and others as appropriate to their age and ability.

7. Unique Experience

Provide an imaginative program offering the camper new challenges, adventure, discovery, fun and learning.

GOALS FOR CAMP STAFF

1. Mission Mindset

Hire staff who demonstrate a desire and ability to share their faith in Christ, who have a concern for and rapport with youth, and who desire to increase their personal skills for the achievement of the above goals.

2. Mission Training

Provide both an intensive pre-camp training for all staff to equip them for their position and daily in-service resource to unite them in prayer and concern for campers as well as for one another.

3. Mission Community

Develop a total staff team united in the purpose and function of their ministry.

Summer Staff Lifestyle Covenant
(Updated November 2018)

The ministry of Covenant Point is reliant upon the quality of the staff and volunteers who carry the gospel message, model healthy Christian living, create a community where campers and guests thrive, and deliver outstanding programs. We highly value our staff. We recognize the unique role and responsibilities of our staff, both full-time and summer staff, as the key agents for ministry effectiveness.

The journey of discipleship, particularly for young adult staff, is a dynamic, developing adventure. While we desire that our staff demonstrate maturity in all areas of personal life and character, we also recognize that young adults are still being formed spiritually, emotionally, intellectually and socially. This ongoing formation best occurs in a healthy, accountable environment – the kind of environment provided by Christian community.

We look to the example of the apostle Paul and his young disciple, Timothy, who although young, was yet deemed capable by his mentor. “Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young,” Paul writes to Timothy, “but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.” (1 Timothy 4:12) This is the model we see for all our staff.

In this spirit, we ask staff and volunteers to agree to the following lifestyle covenant, which addresses express behaviors expected from staff who engage our campers and guests, and focus on actions emanating from a heart of faith in Christ, so staff set an example in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity. Applicants who cannot in good conscience agree to the lifestyle covenant are welcome to continue in conversation with camp leaders, or to see employment elsewhere.

- CPBC staff members and volunteers willingly submit to the mission of the camp.
  - I understand that personal matters (such as dating relationships, sexuality, fashion, theological convictions, political learnings, etc.) have the potential to distract from the ministry and a clear presentation of the Gospel.
  - I have done a thorough inventory of how my faith in Jesus transcends my own individuality, and I will serve alongside fellow staff members with integrity to that reality.
  - I am committed to being flexible and ready to serve the community’s best needs beyond my particular job description when necessary.
- CPBC staff members and volunteers seek to live in ways that align with biblical teaching in all areas of personal and community life.
  - I am committed to practicing personal disciplines (prayer, accountability, devotional, worship, etc.) that nurture my own walk with Christ, sharing Christ through both my action and my words.
  - I am committed to healthy interpersonal relationships that reflect Christ’s teachings:
    - I will not practice or tolerate gossip, slander, malicious humor, offensive or profane language, bullying or divisive behavior.
    - I will seek to see Christ in each person, respecting his or her individuality, experience, perspective, gifts and background.

- I will speak the truth in love, communicate clearly, believe the best about one another, and allow room for mistakes.
- I will not practice or tolerate any form of racism, sexism, cultural insensitivity, hazing, abuse or harassment.
- I am committed to self- discipline:
  - I will not use alcohol or tobacco products on or off Covenant Point property.
  - I understand that the use or abuse of alcohol or any illegal substance may be cause for dismissal.
  - I understand that possession or use of pornography in all forms is prohibited.
  - In matters of sexual behavior, I will abide by the expectations of the Evangelical Covenant Church regarding its position on human sexuality: practicing and teaching fidelity in heterosexual marriage and celibacy in singleness.
  - I understand that the way I present myself in social media matters – both for my own relationships as well as for the ministry of Covenant Point – and I will therefore present myself in a manner befitting of Covenant Point’s Christian mission in all online media

As a member of the Covenant Point volunteer work crew, I understand my unique role and responsibility in modeling a life of discipleship to Jesus Christ for campers and guests. As an indication of my understanding and willingness to honor Christ and the camp’s mission above all, I agree to abide by the Summer Work Crew Lifestyle Covenant and am willing to be supportive of the expectations of the Evangelical Covenant Church as long as I am employed by the camp.
