Packing List for Canoe Trip

This list represents an ideal list. Don't go out and buy a pile of expensive equipment. You could borrow almost everything on this list from a friend or relative or get it at a used clothing store. If you can't find one or two items, find a reasonable substitute. It helps to pack in 2-gallon Ziploc bags to keep things accessible, in order, and dry.

The following items are recommended:

- ** completed health form (see below)
- ** required medications (see below)
- ** 1 nylon sleeping bag w/stuff sack. Ideal bag is one with a nylon/fiberfill or hollowfill filler: warm, lightweight, compactable, easily dried.
- ** shoes to get wet teva or chaco type sandals or old tennis shoes. This is IMPORTANT—flip-flops do not work.
- ** shoes to wear around the camp site at night
- ** rain jacket and rain pants (if you have them)
- ** 3 4 t-shirts and underwear
- ** 2 pair of wool socks and 2 pair of cotton socks
- ** 1 wool sweater or fleece, preferably not a sweatshirt
- ** 1 long-sleeved light weight shirt
- ** 1 nylon windbreaker
- ** 1 pair of cotton pants—loose fitting
- ** 1 warm wool hat
- ** 1 or 2 pairs of shorts—quick drying
- ** swimsuit (modest in design)
- ** sunglasses (important)
- ** 1 brimmed hat or visor
- ** 1 handkerchief or bandana
- ** small flashlight with extra batteries
- ** toiletries, small towel, toothbrush & paste
- ** insect repellent—Cutters or Muskoil (non-aerosol)
- ** sunscreen (20+) and lip balm
- ** tampons for women
- ** 1 small Bible
- ** one or two sets of clothing—left at camp with your luggage

Optional items:

- ** Camera
- ** journal and/or writing materials
