QUILTING RETREAT

A Self-Directed Getaway for Quilters & Friends

Join Us October 17-20!

We've heard that a few of you just may have a project that needs finishing...

This fall, Covenant Point might be the perfect place for you to retreat! You're invited to spend your days here sewing, renewing friendships, napping, sipping on coffee, enjoying the peaceful surroundings, AND having someone else do all the cooking...including Covenant Point's famous Sunday brunch! The retreat will include opportunities on Friday night and at the end of the weekend for sharing with the group what you've been working on.

So, please come sew at your own pace, and join us for what we hope will be a new, warm gathering at Covenant Point.

Located in Iron River, Michigan, on beautiful Hagerman Lake, Covenant Point is an ideal place to rest, sew, and enjoy friends and the surrounding creation. Our lodges offer simple, comfortable, and well-maintained dormitory-style spaces for you to rest, or to spread out and get to work. Our kitchen is filled with loving hands, making homemade tasty meals. Our grounds are perfect for a quiet walk near the lake to take in a much-needed rest. Finally, our chapel will welcome any who are interested in an optional Sunday morning worship service prior to brunch.
