Outdoors Retreat

11:00 AM Thursday, Oct 12 – 10:00 AM Sunday, Oct 15

Use Covenant Point as a “home base” to hunt, fish, hike, or explore! Stay close to camp, or adventure further. Covenant Point lies on the edge of Michigan’s Ottawa National Forest and Wisconsin’s Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest, both of which include hundreds of thousands of acres of public land, and hundreds of lakes. Bring your own hunting, fishing, or hiking equipment and get out adventuring! Each day we’ll provide breakfast, lunch, and dinner, with an option to pack a bag lunch for an extended day away from camp. Fishing seasons are open for pike, musky, walleye, and pan-fish this time of year. Open hunting seasons include waterfowl, (archery) deer, and small game (including ruffed grouse). This retreat takes place simultaneously with our Fiber Arts Retreat. For more information on sightseeing areas or hiking trails within a two-hour drive, and hunting and fishing regulations and licensing, visit www.cpbpc.com/outdoors-retreat.
